Presentation to Mr. S. P. Read, Cashler of the Union and Planters Bank, of Memphis, of a Five-Hundred-Dollar Stem-Winding Jurgensen Chronometer

The stockholders of the Union and Planters last month Mr. J. Cooper Price was approached by one Lib Warner, a well-known Colonel R. Dudley Frayser, presented S. P. Read, Esq., cashier of the back, a beautiful she had discovered two deserted children in and valuable sourceair for his faithfulness and very destitute circumstances in a house on been thrown from the horse, and had not The gentlemen stockholders of the bank are the place indicated, and found two children been killed instantly or otherwise; at least Mr. Gwynn says so, and his word is good in Memphis.

-The Somerville (Fayette county) Falcon, of the twenty-sixth, says: "A shooting affray occurred at Whiteville last Thursday right in Durscay's stress between Dr. W. Somerwille (Some Mr. Son, A. C. Treadwell, C. W. Goyer, J. H. Mr. Son, A. night, in Duncan's store, between Dr. W. S. Neely and James Mitchell, jr., which resulted in the death of both parties. Mr. Mitchell was killed on Saturday and others not properly and others not properly and others not properly and then set about inding a home for them. One of them, Lilie, a bright little thing, was taken by a lady who has no family was killed instantly. Dr. Neely died on R. spent life. Gentlemen - Upon no occasion in life have I been more highly gratified and flatteed than upon this. The remarks of your speaker, Colonel Frayser, are eloquent, and concerning me very combinmentary. He commends me highly for fidelity in the performance of duty during the epiblemic. It was, gentlemen, only the performance of a very plain and simule duty; nevertheless, a very imperative one a debt, it might be called, that could not be repudiated—a debt of homor due the stockhilders and patroks of the Union and Planters bank, the former of whom had, for nearly two years, honored me with its active management and the cust dy of its reasures—by far the most valuable own d by any institution in this State—and, finally, a debt due suffering humanily in pressiving a channel for the discharge of duty, it is always pleasant for one to know there has been recognition. The recognition in my case has been so full and complete that I shall ever revert to it with gratitude and pleasure. This handsome and valuable gift is most thankfully accepted, and will ever be valued as a testimonial of your approval.

From that time on the rabbi has been trying to called the sympathics of several prominent persons in his cause, and is doing everything in his power to get hold of the girl. It now seems probable that the matter will get into the courts. In the meantime Mr. and Mrs. Price have the little girl, who is happy and contented and does not want to go away.
